BOTTOM TURN

TOP TURN

Similar to snowboarding, surfing is based on reciprocal sways. Every turn on a wave creates a counter force to the surfers movement. Only through this force it is possible, to pick up speed within every curve. Homebreak simulates this counter force by bouncing the movement of the surfboard tail, with strong resistance bands made of rubber.

BOTTOM TURN

TOP TURN

Similar to snowboarding, surfing is based on reciprocal sways. Every turn on a wave creates a counter force to the surfers movement. Only through this force it is possible, to pick up speed within every curve. Homebreak simulates this counter force by bouncing the movement of the surfboard tail, with strong resistance bands made of rubber.